DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments (paper no. 3) filed Nov. 6, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Response to remarks:

Applicant asserts with respect to claim 1 (paper no. 3, page 4, lines 7 – 9), that the Barnes '315 fails to teach or suggest "flag for indicating predetermined logical values of data stored in memory areas by referring to an all zero flag".

In response; with respect to applicant argument, claim 1 is silent with respect to the limitation "all zero flag". Therefore the above argument has no merits, and the rejection still applies.

Applicant did not present any new argument with respect to claims 2 to 8, therefore claims 2 – 8 are rejected for the same reason as stated in previous office action (paper no. 2, dated Aug. 13, 2003).

Applicant asserts with respect to claim 9 to 11 (paper no. 3, page 4, lines 6 – 5 from the bottom of the page) that Barnes '315 fails to teach "all zero flag which can avoid waste writing/reading".

In response; with respect to applicant argument, Barnes '315 teaches status flag for indicating whether the memory is full or empty for writing and reading purpose, the status flag memory for indicating the memory is empty would be equivalent to "all zero flag".

In view of the above the previous rejection as stated in previous Office Action (Paper no. 2, dated Aug. 13, 2003) still applies.

Conclusion

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
